

I benefit from XM's traffic and weather due to the fact it provides me with information that I need to quick decisions in my car on routes to take and how to avoid potential problems on the road. I pay for this service and feel I have a right to listen to what ever I deem as appropriate. XM radio is a tremendous service to myself and the community I live in. Thanks for allowing me to continue this very valuable service.